Foreword

We are delighted to welcome you to our special edition centenary newsletter.

It's hard to believe we're coming to the end of our centenary year. It only seems like yesterday that we formed a group, which included some of our residents, to plan what we would be doing to celebrate our centenary, but this actually began back in 2017!

We had so many ideas, but we had three main objectives:

- 1. To link as many events as possible to our railway heritage
- 2. To involve as many of our residents as possible
- 3. To make events/activities cost neutral where possible

We are pleased to say that all three objectives were met. The vast majority of our events were linked to the railway, whether it was our signature event on the amazing Wensleydale Railway, holding our AGM at the National Railway Museum and even brewing a railwayinspired centenary beer.

Hundreds of our residents were involved in events/activities. 100 guests joined us on the afternoon tea train on the Wensleydale Railway, including John Baker, the resident who suggested a steam train trip as our biggest event.

We welcomed more residents to our grand day out in Darlington and several of our involved residents joined us at our AGM. The beer we had brewed was shared among residents and looking even wider, hundreds of people are now finding out more about Railway Housing Association and its history at an exhibition running at the Head of Steam Museum in Darlington.

Each of our sheltered housing schemes were given money to mark the centenary in a manner of their choosing. Most held scheme parties with entertainment, food and refreshments.

None of this would have been possible however without the generous support of local organisations, notably Darlington Building Society who sponsored the afternoon tea train. Other suppliers and contractors paid for the brewing of the beer or the sheltered scheme events, and we are very grateful for all their contributions.

We hope you have enjoyed taking part in, or reading about, the many events/activities that have taken place throughout 2019.

We value your support and are now looking forward to the next 100 years of Railway Housing Association.

Thank you

Berni Whitaker, (Chair) and Anne Rowlands (Chief Executive)

Thank you to MT Print for subsidising the cost of printing this centenary newsletter.

Raise your glass

A beer brewed to a style popular 100 years ago has been enjoyed by many of our residents.

shockthesenses

Steam Machine Brewery in Newton Aycliffe produced a limited-edition porter style beer to mark our centenary year.

er PR & Mark

The beer, which is called 'Vintage Railway Porter', was given out to residents at various events throughout the year, including on the afternoon tea train and at our 2019 residents' grand day out.

We would like to thank Shaefer PR and Marketing Ltd for their sponsorship of the beer and Shock the Senses for designing the bottle labels free of charge.

CENTENARY

It made sense to have an event connected with the railway and what better than taking people on an amazing heritage line like this; it was a fantastic afternoon.

DARLINGTON

Our 'signature' event of year was an afternoon tea experience on board carriages pulled by the Tornado, a coal-fired steam locomotive built in Darlington and operated by Wensleydale Railway.

All aboard the centenary express

An amazing 100 guests joined us on the train in June as it followed the route of the popular tourist and heritage line starting in Leeming Bar and heading to Redmire, on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, before heading back to Leeming. On route passengers were served an afternoon tea consisting of sandwiches, cakes, scones and tea and coffee. Among those travelling was resident John Baker, from Newcastle, who originally came up with the idea of doing something related to the railway for the signature event.

Mr Baker said: "It made sense to have an event connected with the railway and what better than taking people on an amazing heritage line like this; it was a fantastic afternoon."

The day could not have been made possible without the amazing support of Darlington Building Society and we would like to thank them for enabling us to have such a memorable event.

" Seeing the steam coming off the train made my day; they don't make them like that anymore!

Happy birthday to you

We were delighted to share our centenary year with two of our residents who also turned 100 in 2019.

Marion Jones and Margaret Turner both celebrated their centenary this year

Marion lives at Great Western Court, Hereford. A keen gardener, her friends at the scheme had a slate name plaque commissioned for her 100th birthday showing 'Marions Garden' which is now in place among her flowers.

Margaret Turner lives at Hackworth Court in Stockton. We were delighted that Margaret was able to join us on the centenary steam train event in June. She said: "Seeing the steam coming off the train made my day; they don't make them like that anymore!"

We would like to send Marion and Margaret, our warmest centenary wishes.

Margaret Turner

Throughout the year residents in our sheltered housing schemes marked our centenary by staging various events, ranging from parties to trips out.

Parties are still due to be held at Hackworth Court in Stockton, sponsored by Derek Shaw; and at Tempest Anderson House in Darlington, sponsored by Phil Burridge.

Cowans House, Newcastle

Sponsored by Alex Scott

Residents at Cowans House in Newcastle enjoyed a lovely buffet meal and raised a toast or two to our centenary.

These were made possible thanks to kind sponsorship from various local businesses who have worked with Railway Housing Association over the years. We would like to thank them for their kind support.

Martin Cheesman Court, York

At Martin Cheeseman Court in York, residents had a party with a buffet & drinks and made their own entertainment by singing and dancing.

Patrick Stirling Court, Doncaster

Sponsored by Kingston Works Ltd

The great, great-grandson of Patrick Stirling, who our sheltered housing scheme is named after, was the guest of honour at this centenary celebration.

Also called Patrick Stirling, we were delighted that he was able to travel all the way from his home in Cornwall to be part of the event. Patrick last visited in 1992 when he opened the scheme for us.

As well as Patrick, residents were joined by members of the community, the Mayor of Doncaster, local councillors and local MP Rosie Winterton. As well as stalls from local groups, such as MIND and Hyde Park Community Group, there was also a projection of slides about the railways in Doncaster, along with music and a buffet tea.

Great Western Court, Hereford

Sponsored by Wayne Kostorz

Residents at Great Western Court stepped back in time to mark our centenary.

Personal memorabilia showing items that were in use 100 years ago, along with letters and photos from the time. were put on display and many residents dressed up in a variety of costumes to commemorate the different fashions of the 1919 era.

invited guests.

Swan House, Swanland

Residents at Swan House in Swanland, near Hull, had a garden party in August. They picked a nice day for it and enjoyed food and drinks in the communal garden.

Forster House & Paterson House, Hull

Sponsored by PJD Electrical/Allan Fairfield

Both Forster House & Paterson House held well-attended parties with buffets in the evening and a singer brought in to entertain at each venue.

Great music was provided by Bandamonium and a lovely buffet made sure the afternoon become a memorable social event for residents, volunteers and

Among the residents celebrating was

North Eastern Court. Gateshead

Sponsored by Tolent

At North Eastern Court, residents had a games afternoon, including

Plevna Mews, Shildon

Sponsored by Derek Shaw

Residents at Plevna Mews spent an afternoon at the seaside for their centenary celebration.

Two minibuses were hired to take residents to South Shields where they enjoyed fish and chips at the famous Coleman's fish and chip shop.

Sayers Close, Leeds

Sponsored by Anthony Watson

Residents at Sayers Close in Leeds had a party with a buffet and a singer and lots of dancing and jiving.

Springfield Court, York

At Springfield Court in York, residents sat down to a slap up buffet meal and refreshments and wished Railway Housing Association a happy centenary with a special cake.

A step back in time Our key moments

100 years of Railway Housing Association

A snapshot of some of the key moments in Railway Housing Association's 100-year history.

Pre-1919

Pre-1919 - the North Eastern Railway (NER) only provided homes for certain workers – cottages for platelayers and gatekeepers, homes for station masters in rural areas; or if private housing was in short supply - 122 cottages were built in Shildon in 1898/99 for workers at the wagon works.

19th July 1919 - The North Eastern Railway Cottage Homes and Benefit Fund was founded to provide homes for railwaymen wounded in the war and war widows.

It was funded by £10,000 from Lady Ellen Granger in memory of her brother, Dr Tempest Anderson, medical adviser to the North Eastern Railway; £1,060 from York station canteen; a contribution from the 17th Northumberland Fusiliers (NER) regimental Institute Fund; weekly contributions from 7,000 members; and the NER match funded members contributions and provided free accountancy, architect and surveying services.

1920s

July 1920 – 12,500 members were contributing a total of £200 per week to the Fund.

Fund raising activities included garden fetes, concerts, whist drives and exhibitions of rolling stock. An exhibition of rolling stock and locomotives at West Hartlepool attracted 15,000 visitors.

May 1921 - the first three-bedroom cottage homes were opened in Gosforth, Newcastle by Lord Joicey. Residents included Thomas Ampleford, a crane man at Tyne Dock until wounded in the war, with his wife and 8 children; and Mary Jane Parkinson, widow of a shunter at Forth Goods Station.

1921 - the Railway Housing Trust and Garden Villages was formed to build 200 three and four-bedroom houses at Faverdale, Darlington to house employees at a new wagon works and their families. The homes were all built within 11 months.

1923 - the cottage homes design was changed, due to the expense, to 3 standard designs of two-bedroom houses, one and two bedroom bungalows.

1923 - homes opened in Scarborough by the now London and North Eastern Railway (LNER).

Opening of new homes in Darlington 1954

1925 - membership had risen to 27,577. LNER reduced funding to 1s for each £1 contributed by members.

1920's - cottage homes were built in Barnard Castle, Benton, Blaydon, Carlisle, Cottingham, Darlington, Ferryhill, Hexham, Hull, Jesmond, Knaresborough, Leeds, Middlesbrough, Northallerton, Norton, Redcar, Seaton Carew, Selby, Shildon, South Gosforth, Sunderland, Willerby, and York.

1930s

By 1932 - total of 226 homes housing over 550 people. 31,991 fund members.

1933 - standard design bungalows were being built for £324 each.

1930's - more homes were built in Alnwick, Bishop Auckland, Blyth, Darlington, Forest Hall, Guisborough, Hartlepool, Hull, Leeds, Lemington, Low Fell, Malton, Market Weighton, Morpeth, Shildon, South Milford, Sunderland, Thornaby, Tweedmouth, Tyne Dock, Tynemouth and York.

1940s

Post World War 2 – homes affected by air raids were repaired and 4 new homes were built in Hartlepool.

1950s

1950s – Some large houses were converted into flats.

1960s

1962 - registered as a charity with the Charity Commission.

1966 - 30 new homes were built in Leeds, making a total of 441 homes.

Work then concentrated on modernising the original homes, dependent on money and vacancies.

1970s

Late 1970s – homes began to be modernised whilst occupied. Many elderly residents were temporarily rehoused, often many miles away, or stayed with relatives.

British Rail withdrew free accountancy, architecture and surveying services and proposed an administrative charge.

1976 - registered as a housing association and received funding for repairing homes and building new homes. It was a condition of the funding that non-railway people had to be considered for the new homes built.

1978 - the two members of staff (the Secretary and his secretary) moved offices from Newcastle to Bank Top House, Darlington.

Advice was given to Durham Aged Miners Homes to help them register as a housing association.

1980s

1981 – The association took over management of 196 homes at Faverdale, Darlington from the Railway Housing Trust and Garden Villages: and Kirby Homes of Rest in Driffield (12 homes) and Joseph Hornby Stockdale Almshouse in Hornsea (3 homes) joined the association.

Membership had reduced to 5,000.

July 1982 - Change of name to Railway Housing Association and Benefit Fund.

1983 - All homes had been modernised, and new sheltered accommodation was being built.

1990s

By 1994 - building of 12 sheltered housing schemes created homes for 550 older residents; four Leasehold Schemes for the Elderly (LSE) in Hexham, Hull, Leeds and South Shields created 73 homes; and flats for single people of working age were built in Darlington to meet a housing need identified by the local council.

2000s

2000 - 2018 - a total of 233 new homes were built in Darlington, Driffield, Shildon, Spennymoor and Swanland.

2012 - 55 homes in York were bought from another housing association.

2019 – the association now has a total of 1,579 homes in Northumberland, Tyne & Wear, Cumbria, Durham, Tees Valley, North Yorkshire, Leeds, York, East Riding, Hull, Doncaster and Hereford; 34 members of staff: and spends £3.5m a year repairing and improving homes. There are plans to build 25 more homes each year. Residents are still actively involved in the management and future of the association. The Benefit Fund now has 40 members and is administered by the Railway Benefit Fund.

Our Board of Trustees was delighted to be joined at this year's event by a number of guests including residents who serve on our Scrutiny Panel, former Chairs, Vice-Chairs and Presidents of the Association and even the great, great grandson of a famous railway engineer!

Museum in York of course!

what an exhibition

COTTAGE HOMES

Our centenary year couldn't have ended in a better way than with an exhibition about Railway Housing Association.

Running for three months from September to the end of November, the exhibition at Head of Steam – Darlington Railway Museum, charts the history of the Association, from our roots providing homes for railwaymen and their families following the end of the First World War, through to the modern day where we now have over 1,500 homes in areas such as Darlington, Durham, York, Newcastle, Doncaster, Hereford and Hull.

Featuring objects from our archives and the museum's collection, as well as personal stories from those who have lived in our homes, visitors were given a real insight into the work of Railway Housing Association over the last 100 years.

Among those present at the unveiling of the exhibition was resident Brenda Flynn, from Darlington. Brenda is also a volunteer at Head of Steam.

She said: "After all the planning of the exhibition, it is fantastic to see it now open to the public and I hope people enjoying finding out about the history of Railway Housing Association."

At the time of going to press, we were hoping to be able to transfer the exhibition to the Locomotion Railway Museum in Shildon, County Durham.

A sweet celebration

Members of staff celebrated our centenary by visiting Beamish, the world famous open-air museum in County Durham telling the story of life in North East England in the early 20th century.

The day started with several members of our team getting dressed up in period costumes for a photograph.

This was followed by a murder mystery where we had to take clues given to us by a 'detective' and venture out into the town to visit places likes the dentist and garage, asking questions of the 'characters' we found there. We then took the clues back to the detective to solve the mystery.

Following lunch, we took part in a traditional sweet making workshop.

It was an enjoyable, fun day which gave staff the opportunity to celebrate the association's centenary.
